die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause,
which is the second stage of seminal

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

To everyone who settles his old subscription account or makes a new one between now and Christmas, we will give as a premium the Continental magazine, a handsomely illustrated journal published monthly. This applies to both daily and weekly, but not to club rates.

THEY DON'T WANT VOTES.

This is the way in which the Kentuckian Free Trader talks: "The laborer in this country gets too smart and independent. Unless he is brought down a peg pretty soon he will rule us all. He gets too much by half. You exclaim against foreign competition because it will reduce the price of labor; if for it, for exactly the same reason, I want to see those ignorant fellows who know nothing except to work with their dirty hands, brought down to their proper level."

This is about a stand-off with the infamous exclamation of one of our millionaires, who is reported to have said, "D— the public!" It will be remembered that Senator Hammond of South Carolina called laborers "the mudsills of society." And Beecher, who thinks laboring men ought to work for a dollar a day.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Union Signal, devoted to the interests of temperance and all the other ills, brings word that the W. C. T. U. has expressed itself strongly in favor of woman's right to the ballot, and has resolved in favor of a 16th amendment to the constitution, prohibiting any State from disfranchising any citizen on account of sex.

Hale introduced a bill in the Senate to-day providing for the construction of seven steel vessels, one steel ram, one cruising torpedo boat and two harbor torpedo boats.

It is announced that there is a project for naval co-operation on the part of neutral powers for the purpose of protecting life and property in China.

Official announcement is made that England resumes control in Basutoland, in compliance with the wishes of a majority of that country.

Prince Jerome Bonaparte has decided to become a candidate for election to the Chamber of Deputies from the Barbedieux department.

The Mexican Trans-Atlantic line will be formally inaugurated to-morrow.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

—Everything is quiet in Shanghai, and nothing known there of the revolution in the Imperial Palace.

—In the billiard contest at Lyons Daley scored 645 Garner 565. Scores of other nights, Daley, 1800; Garner, 1795.

—The river Main is rising rapidly at Wurzberg, and has already overflowed the lower part of the town. Great anxiety exists.

—The Navajo Indians leave their reservation and run off stock belonging to the settlers. The settlers are much incensed.

—It is estimated that 200 miles of fencing was destroyed by wire-cutters in the region west of San Antonio, Texas, in the last 15 days.

—A large schooner was lost yesterday north of the city of Evanston, Ill. It is supposed to be the North Cape, lumber laden from Muskegon.

—A farmer named Phillip McGavin was murdered in county Cavan, Ireland, yesterday, the crime being the result of agrarian troubles. Several arrests have been made.

—The authorities at Peking deny that they were implicated in the murder of the King of Annam, recently poisoned. It is stated that one of the King's wives committed the murder at the instigation of the mandarins.

—Superintendent Jamison, R. M. S., has returned from Portland, Oregon, and points on the Northern Pacific Railway. He succeeded in perfecting a railway mail system on that route, so no delay is now experienced in the distribution of mail matter.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

Sundries in the House.

WASHINGTON, December 18.

The Committee on Rules of the House, met this forenoon and determined to recommend that two committees be made out of the old Educational Committee, one called the Committee of Education, and the other, the Committee on Labor. It was also decided to recommend the retention of all select committees of the last House, except such as related to personal subjects. The Census Committee has been dropped; also the Committee on recommendations for the Congressional Library. Kiefer was instructed to report resolutions recommending adoption of a Committee on Woman Suffrage. The request of correspondents to be admitted to the House lobby, was considered and unanimously rejected.

Van Wyck offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior for copies of mortgages given by the Texas Pacific on lands granted per Act of March 3d, 1881; also to inform the Senate of the names of railroad claimants lands not earned, the time of grant, together with the number of acres claimed by each road. Agreed to.

At the conclusion of the morning hour, the Senate proceeded to the election of officers. On division as to the choice of secretary by strict party lines, Mahone and Riddleberger voting with the Republicans, General Anson G. McCook was chosen over D. Q. Washington.

A Gone Greek.

Boston, December 18.

Professor Evangelinos Apostolides Sophocles, the venerable professor of Greek of Harvard University, died yesterday morning at Cambridge. He was the most profound scholar and notable figure in the College campus, with a flowing white beard and silver, unkempt locks. He was a native Greek, born within a few miles of classic Mount Pelion, in 1807. His whole life is a mystery about which he always refused to talk. He spent several years in a convent. He came to this country and entered Amherst College in 1829, and was appointed Greek tutor in Harvard in 1842, and made a professor in 1860.

A Sharp Contractor.

CLEVELAND, December 18.

James McHenry of England, in a suit, claims that he holds $15,000,000 stock in the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio Railroad and affirms that since he placed his certificate in the hands of the trustees, he has never been consulted on matters connected with the road. The Railway Company answers that McHenry built the road as a contractor, and had a secret and fraudulent contract with the engineer, and mortgaged the line to the amount of more than $35,000,000.

Charges Denied.

New York, December 18.

The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church say, regarding the mission and girls' school at Fort Wrangel, in Alaska, that there have been some differences as to methods of work, and some unpleasantness and excitement in the school and town, which they deplore; but that the account that there has been prostitution in the school, and that one of the missionaries claimed to be Jesus Christ, is wholly untrue.

House Adjourned on Account of Death.

WASHINGTON, December 18.

Both houses adjourned on the announcement of the death of Representative Haskell. Miller is expected to introduce an amended Chinese bill in the Senate to-day. Henley will bring it before the House soon. It is believed that nothing can be gained by the introduction of the bill in the House before the holiday recess, as the committees are not appointed.

The President's Vacation.

WASHINGTON, December 18.

The President will leave Washington Thursday for a visit to Brooklyn and Philadelphia. He will attend the annual banquet of the New England Society. Secretary Chandler, with probably other members of the Cabinet, will accompany the President.

National Trouble Feared.

BATON ROUGE, December 18.

Much bad blood is manifested among the crowds in attendance on the Democratic State Convention. Trouble is feared between the McEnery and Ogden factions.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES.

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

First Class Humbug.

Rome, December 18.

After privately dining at the Quirinal the German Crown Prince, King Humbert, Duke D'Aosta and son and the Grand Duke of Baden went to the capitol where they were received by the Mayor of Rome. The party then witnessed an illumination of the monument in the forum, and afterwards proceeded to the museum where an official reception was held. The German Prince had a long talk with the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs. On Tuesday the Prince will lunch with the German Ambassador at the Royal Court, and afterward go to the Vatican.

More Liberty.

LONDON, December 18.

Speaking at Birmingham to-day, Sir Charles Dilke, under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, intimated that at the next session of Parliament, the Government would endeavor to pass a franchise bill in addition to measures in regard to municipal reform for the government of London, and for reforming city guilds. He advocated equality for Ireland in regard to franchise.

More Soldiers.

LONDON, December 17.

It is rumored the Khedive has notified England that he cannot confront the present situation unless his position is secured by the presence of other than Egyptian troops. It is believed, therefore, that a strong English force will be dispatched to Egypt. Several battalions of militia have been enrolled to replace troops withdrawn from Ireland.

More Hanging in Ireland.

DUBLIN, December 18.

Joseph Poole was hanged at 8:05 o'clock this morning for the murder of Kenney, in Dublin. Poole rose at 5:30. A priest visited him at 6, and administered the sacrament at 7:15. Both remained in the prison chapel until nearly 8. Poole stood the ordeal of preparation for execution with remarkable fortitude.

Still Hanging Fire.

LONDON, December 18.

A Hanoi dispatch of the 12th inst. says: The civil power in Tonquin is in abeyance. Dr. Harmand, French Commissioner, started to return to France to-day. It is feared the Chinese at Bac Ninh will attack Hanoi during the absence of the expedition to-night.

Suspected Irishmen.

The police are closely watching the houses of leading Irish Nationalists.

It is reported that the Lord Mayor has received an anonymous letter, threatening to blow up London Bridge and Newgate. The detectives withdrew from the prison after O'Donnell was hanged, have been returned there.

Baker Pasha's Instructions.

CAIRO, December 18.

Baker Pasha has started for Smakin, and will reach Suez to-night. He will have supreme command in London, and the Khedive has instructed him to endeavor to conciliate the tribes before resorting to force.

English Troops For Egypt.

LONDON, December 18.

One hundred and fifty artillerymen have gone to Egypt. The Queen has gone to Osborn, in the Isle of Wight.

—Bishop Blum resumed the Bishopric of Limburg yesterday.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

Excites Surprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 18.

The coroner's jury in the case of McLaughlin, shot by J. B. Cox on Thursday last, returned a verdict that Cox shot McLaughlin in self-defense. The verdict causes a sensation, as there was nothing in the evidence to sustain it.

They Think We Have Drawn It Too Strong.

A call special says: Several members who have made themselves familiar with the proposed amendments to the present Chinese Restriction Act, have expressed the opinion that the Pacific coast delegation have drawn them too strongly to admit of the bill going smoothly through Congress.

Dillon Says No.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 18.

A New York special from Chicago announces the failure of Sydney Dillon, but which called upon he denounced it as a base fabrication, saying: "I haven't failed, and I ain't going to, either."

Skating on the Reservoir.

The fine moonlight in the latter part of last week caused a heavy influx of skaters on the reservoir, and on Saturday night they enjoyed it so much that many remained till 3 A. M. Many young ladies were on hand, and in the attempt to learn, no few of them saw stars that neither Arago nor Ayres ever discovered with their best telescopes.

Ice for the Prison.

Warden Bell is putting up a supply of ice for the prison. Convicts are now engaged in cutting up the frozen Carson.

Attending to Business.

Court is in session at Stillwater, Churchill county, Judge McKinney presiding. The Reno bar is well represented.

JOTTINGS.

The Central Pacific pay car is expected in a day or two.

There are stove pipes through the roof in several places in Reno.

Leadbetter will have fresh Baltimore oysters in time for Christmas.

Go to Leadbetter's and engage your chickens and turkeys for Christmas.

Mr. Higgins says if the man who took his hat from the A. O. U. W. hall last night, will return it to the depot he can get his.

Pinniger & Queen are druggists at the head of their profession, and at present they merely invite you to see their Christmas goods, which are superb.

Gold watches reduced to actual cost at Nasby's, 27 Commercial Row. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1, 3-24, 26, 37, 47, 48.

Vegetables of all kinds at Leadbetter's; also fruit of every variety and fresh and salt water fish. Leave your Christmas order. Don't forget his cider.

Sunday School Superintendents should bear in mind that Leadbetter has a good assortment of Christmas tree ornaments, and will sell them cheap.

S. J. Hodgkinson will act as floor director for the Christmas bazaar party. He will be assisted by Lisle Jamison, George Mosher and George Hymers.

At the Palace bakery the choicest of candies are manufactured daily. The little stockings must be filled and there is the place to get what you want. Call and see for yourself. Read ad.

John F. Myers thinks he has the inside track on Christmas goods, and invites the public to call and examine his stock. If you prefer medicines, of course he will supply you.

If care and pains mean anything, Osburn & Shoemaker ought to have a first-class assortment of holiday goods. Go there and see for yourself; you are each and all specially invited.

Fredricks does not want customers to forget his regular stock in their excitement over his Christmas invoice. He will sell anything in his store cheaply and with a guarantee.

Goeggel has expended largely in trying to get the finest supply of goods for the coming festive season that could be procured. He has them now and wants you to examine and purchase.

If you want to make your wife or lady friend happy and smiling for a whole year, go to Osburn & Shoemaker, buy one of their splendid sewing machines, and make her a Christmas present of it; no charge for advice.

For a first-class article of hardware, a stove of any pattern, any casting that you may need, or any tinware that your fancy may conceive, and for which you do not want to pay too high a price, Knowles & Bainbridge's is the place.

To say anything in praise of Lindley & Co.'s goods is "adding fresh sweetness to the violet." Nothing can be added to the flavor of their Thistle Dew whiskey, which you may and should try for yourselves. Of their excellent groceries too much cannot be said.

The White House in Reno is as well known as was formerly the White House of San Francisco. It owes its celebrity to the ability of Abrahams Bros. to buy cheap, sell low and keep everything that any possible customer can want. You need something; go and see them.

Every man, woman and child wants something in the meat line. For fresh meats of all kinds—beef, mutton, veal, head-cheese, sausages of every variety, in short, for all that can be done in the way of preparing meat, go to J. D. Pollard, who will furnish you what you want.

Few men know how to keep a hotel, but Al White does. He doesn't even need a partner for the purpose; and at the Palace the liver of cards, billiards, mixed or other drinks, and the sedate business man in quest of quiet can all get what they desire, and will all go away satisfied that they have had their money's worth.

Jamison & Son have a splendid assortment of Christmas goods this year, better than ever before. Toys of all kinds, work boxes, toy boxes, scrap books, fancy stationery, and in fact everything going to make up a full Christmas stock. They are selling very cheap too. Don't fail to give them a call before making your purchases.

Like his prototype, Petroleum V. Reno's Nasby is always on hand. But ours, at this season, wants to call attention to his goods, which he has bought for the coming carnival times. He wants you all to come and patronize him. When the goods are sold and the rush over, he will outdo his namesake in telling you taking stories.

Cattle on the Move.

Louis Dean will ship three carloads of cattle to San Francisco this afternoon, and will send a band of 200 to Virginia City to-morrow. He has a band of 500 in Honey Lake valley. In Humboldt, he has yet about 1,200 head, but in the main, Humboldt is pretty well cleared of cattle at the present time.

A GOOD DOG.

Truckee Wins First Prize at the Pacific Coast Field Trial.

The American Field contains an interesting report of the first annual field trial of the Pacific Coast Club, near Folsom last month.

F. W. Dunn of Battle Mountain, acted as judge, and showed himself thoroughly acquainted with the best methods of handling, and perfectly at ease amid the excitement of the trials. The winner of the first prize for the All Ages stake, was Dorr, owned by Fred A. Taft of Truckee. Dorr is a six-year-old black and tan setter. He won third prize in Nebraska in 1881, and several prizes as a performing dog.

Dorr won every heat he was in, although according to a note from Mr. Taft to the editor, he had not hunted for nearly a year, and never with California birds.

James G. Hooper.

James G. Hooper, the man arrested at the North for the murder of Shaw, at Madeline Plains, is well known in this section. He was at one time a partner of George Winters in the cattle business, and lived for a long time at Washoe. He is a member of Washoe Lodge No. 2, F. and A. M., and has always been considered a good citizen.

Since his arrest he has been accused of murdering a man near Franktown two or three years ago. The GAZETTE's readers will remember the circumstance of a section-man having been killed and his cabin burned. It seems impossible that he could be guilty of committing so heinous a crime as that with which he is charged. The public should not be too hasty in condemning him. His past life will not warrant anyone in condemning him until he has been convicted.

Plowing on Big Meadows.

Hon. P. N. Marker is breaking up the old natural meadows above the Sink of Humboldt. He is running four plows with six horses to each one, and though the lake is partially frozen over, the ground above it is in excellent condition for plowing. Those meadow lands, which he is now breaking, were supposed by the first settlers in that section to be the only valuable lands on the lower Humboldt, as they produced an average hay crop without irrigation, and the belief was general that nothing else would grow in that section.

A Good Brick.

Chamberlain had a chunk of purple ore from Pyramid lying on his counter last week which weighed just 18 pounds. He got Thomas Price to reduce it, and this morning brought home a red brick containing 74 cents in gold, 56 cents in silver and enough copper to make it weigh 73 ounces. That makes the ore worth $151 in gold and silver, and $100 in copper per ton. It worked 284 per cent. copper, but it contained more.

Election of Officers.

Nevada Lodge No. 5, A. O. U. W., last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Dr. Dawson, M. W.; R. W. White, Foreman; Fred Kline, Overseer; F. McRae, Recorder; D. McKay, Receiver; W. D. Wagar, Financier; W. N. Snider, Guide; E. Bates, J. W. H. P. Nelson, O. W. The installation will take place at the next meeting, on the first Monday in January.

An Indian Festival.

About 100 Washoe Indians came in on the V. & T. local to-day noon. They were all loaded with pine nuts, and came to meet the Long Valley and Honey Lake Indians, who are here from the north loaded with dried rabbit meat. The two bands are to have a big feast and dance, and exchange nuts for rabbit meat.

The Rock Point Mill.

The Rock Point Mill below Dayton has only 10 of the 20 available stamps in operation. Superintendent C. C. Stevenson has sent to Ohio for another water-wheel, a duplicate of the one now in use. The foundation is ready to receive the wheel when it comes. The increase of power thus obtained will be sufficient to set the entire 20 stamps at work.

No Near, and Yet so Far.

The Four Hills mine in Plumas county, which in a month or two yielded more than $100,000, was crossed by a trail which has been traveled every summer since that county was inhabited by the white man and at one time a shaft was sunk within a few inches of the rich deposit.

Not afraid of Reno.

John Belz has bought Mrs. I. T. Benham's residence for his own home. J. J. Becker has bought the fine lot on the corner of Fourth and West streets, from J. N. Jaquish; and is going to put up a fine brick house on it. Several other good houses are going up in 1894.

Vacation in the Public Schools.

The lower rooms of the public schools have a vacation from yesterday afternoon, and the higher departments will be released from their arduous labors on Wednesday evening. The schools will resume on Wednesday January 23.

PERSONALS.

James Mayberry and A. A. Smith came home this morning.

W. R. Chamberlain and wife returned from below this morning.

Captain C. A. Merrill will shortly leave for Washington on business connected with his Lassen county land and canal scheme.

W. B. Tiffany, one of the pioneers of Truckee between Boca and Verdi, has moved to Auburn. His new neighbors will find Mr. Tiffany a specimen of that noblest work of God, an honest man.

Wadsworth Delays.

The weather is delightful and skating fine.

Business is good; all our houses are full and more wanted.

The C. P. Company has shown its good sense by erecting a footbridge across the Truckee on the south side of the railroad bridge.

The machinery is being placed in the new shops.

A large audience was in attendance at the school-house last evening, to listen to an address delivered, very acceptably, by D. R. O'Kiefe, Esq.

The new time-keeper for the railroad shops has removed his family here from Reno.

M. Raphael has opened a new store in what was formerly Mike Shields' saloon.

The ladies are busily engaged in preparations for a Christmas tree for the good of all the children and everybody else in town.

Kindergarten Exercises.

The holiday exercises of the north side primary school this afternoon were a surprise to parents and visitors. The special feature of this school is the Kindergarten, under the management of Mrs. Scoville, assisted by Miss Jessie Finlayson. The Kindergarten is a pronounced factor in school progress, and the GAZETTE trusts the people will realize and appreciate its benefits. The drill exercises of the whole school, including the Kindergarten, this afternoon were very creditable, to the children and teachers alike. The Christmas tree, filled with presents for the parents—the work of little hands and loving hearts—attested the good work of the past three months.

Pistols in Carson.

Yesterday at Carson, in a dispute about money matters, between James W. Duffy and Nate Smart, the latter struck his antagonist and Duffy, drawing his pistol, fired twice at Smart but failed to hit him. Smart, who had retired during the shooting, came back, and Duffy attempted to shoot him, but only succeeded in shooting himself, inflicting a painful and possibly a dangerous wound. Duffy's wife then appeared upon the scene, and a Carson paper states that at her earnest solicitation Duffy was permitted to go on his own recognition.

Wedding.

Miss Christina Burke was married to Andrew Tuft at the residence of L. W. Lee on the 14th inst., and the parties are now off on a wedding trip. The guests were numerous at the ceremony, and a fine supper was furnished with all the appliances. The young lady has been in Mr. Lee's house as domestic, and he, as well as everybody else, speaks of her in the highest terms. The parties both have the best wishes of all who know them.

Levy Bros.

The excellent business done by Levy Bros., their numerous customers and the satisfaction that all express, would be sufficient guarantee of the quality and cheapness of their goods. But they have added much to their stock with a view to the incoming season; and there is not room in the GAZETTE to catalogue it, so you will have to go for yourself, or still better send your wife to see.

A Light in His Profession.

It is said, by those who know something about the business, that Henry Morris draws the largest salary paid any barber in the United States, if not in the world. John Belz pays him $30 a week in gold coin and says he is worth it. Anybody who can dig up a barber working at a regular chair who gets bigger pay than Mr. Morris can win $50.

School Text-Books.

Much money is yearly wasted in the purchase of an infinity of text-books full of verbiage and only serving to confuse children and deplete the purses of parents. As now compiled, such text-books are solely in the interest of publishers.

A Broken Jaw.

Andrew O'Brien, a carpenter working at the railroad shops at Glenbrook, was struck Sunday by a piece of machinery, and his jaw was broken. Dr. White was telegraphed for and met the injured man on the way, and brought him to Carson for treatment.

A Fruit Dealer's Passion.

The Appeal says Peter Pearsich, a Carson fruit dealer, has left town and his partner, having first gambled off $5,000 of his firm's money.

Wants a Restaurant.

Dayton wants a restaurant and oyster stand. Campbell of the Times, craves a "fancy roast."

The Exiled Plutes.

Naches, the Plute chief, tells the Silver State that there are six or eight lodges of the Indians who were exiled to Yakima, now at McDermitt, and more will be there shortly. Leggins, a noted chief, is with the Indians at McDermitt. They live on rabbits and deer at present, and have a good time hunting, but unless some provision is made to support them, many of them will suffer with hunger, if they do not starve, before Spring. An appropriation was made by Congress for the support of the Indians near McDermitt, but this year their number will be doubled by those who returned from Yakima. The appropriation last year was $2,500, to be expended under the direction of the military, but it is doubtful if that amount was sent to the fort.

MISCELLANEOUS.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctor gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and an satisfied user of CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
HORACE FAIRBROTHER.
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
Mrs. EMMA GRENEY.
150 West 125th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."
Byalla, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
E. H. AGOOD.
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

PENSIONS TO ALL

soldiers and sailors who were disabled by wounds, disease, accident or otherwise, the loss of a toe, pistol, watch, chronometer, diaphragm, rupture, loss of sight, (partially or) loss of hearing, falling back of head, rheumatism, any disability, no matter how slight, gives you a pension. Now and Honorable Discharge obtained. Soldiers and sailors in the service or afterwards, from disease contracted or wound received while in service, are entitled to pension. Rejected and abandoned claims a specialty. Pay, Back Pay and Horse Claims collected for an increase at once.

INCREASE YOUR PENSION
A pension can be increased at any time when the disability warrants it. As you grow older the wound or disease gradually determines the constitution, the disease has made you more helpless. In some manner the disability has increased; so apply for an increase at once.
